

Introductory Commis Chef Course: Modern Skills for Modern Chefs

The School of Food in association with Taste 4 Success Skillnet is delighted to announce a brand new Introductory Commis Chef Certificate Training course, 'Modern Skills for Modern Chefs'.

Starting 17th September 2018 this hands on 11-week course will take place at the School of Food, Thomastown, Kilkenny from Monday to Friday, full-time. From week 7, students will work one day a week in a leading hotel/restaurant.

This unique cookery course incorporates all the skills and techniques required of the Modern Commis Chef. It is centered on practical cooking and includes essential Health and Safety training.

No experience necessary, except a passion for food and a desire to work in the industry. A QQI equivalent level 4 certificate will be issued to students.

Eligibility Criteria will apply (NB anyone on a current CE or TUS Scheme may not be eligible): Please see www.taste4success.ie Jobseeker's section

Eligible candidates will be required to attend and interview for a place on the course

For an application form please contact

info@taste4success.ie or info@schooloffood.ie